

Margaret's Success Story

Meet Margaret Wynn, a long-term care resident at Chowan River Nursing & Rehab in Edenton, NC., recently achieved something truly special. She won First Place in the 65 and over category for her painting, "A Bouquet of Flowers," at the Chowan County Fair.

Margaret has been part of our community in Edenton, NC for 4 years, and we're proud to say that her win reflects Chowan River Nursing & Rehabilitation Center's commitment to holistic care, where social activities are an integral part of our residents' well-being. We believe that by providing engaging activities, we create a nurturing environment for our residents to thrive.

Congratulations, Margaret, on your well-deserved success! Your achievements bring joy to our community.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MARGARET

Learn more about how Margaret is a thriving member of our community

CONTACT US TODAY

Contact us today to arrange a visit and discover the difference personalized care can make in your recovery journey.

252-482-7481 | CHOWANRIVERCARE.COM